

Through My Eyes: A Lifetime of Memories—Southern Style

by Carolyne Taylor Wynne

SOUTHERN WRITER'S TRUE TALES WILL CHARM YOU IN TRUE SOUTHERN STYLE

In this heartwarming new memoir, proud-to-be-Southern storyteller Carolyne Taylor Wynne shares her true tales of growing up in the Low Country of South Carolina as a country girl, moving to Atlanta, Georgia, where she became a Southern lady, and ultimately taking trips all over the world as an international traveler. Her tales will charm you with their innocence and entertain you with their humor. Her “laugh at myself” punch lines are page-by-page reminders that the best humor often comes from being oh-so-much less than perfect. Historical, educational, and wholesome, Through My Eyes is a treasured book that families, adults, and children of all ages can read and enjoy together.

“From the Carolina cotton fields to metropolitan China, Wynne takes readers on a journey of a Southern girl’s childhood to becoming a world traveler. Her vignettes transport readers deep into rural South Carolina and connect the smells, tastes and sensations of the times. . . . From heartfelt reminiscences to humorous examples of an American in foreign locales, readers are transported into the memories of the kind of person you’d like to get to know.”

Carolyne Taylor Wynne, a vibrant woman of many talents, was a corporate accountant for more than 30 years. After retiring, she continued being a dedicated community volunteer, an avid bridge player, an active gardener, an experienced world traveler, and an entertaining storyteller, just as she had before retiring. She also took classes in painting, drawing, cryptograms, cooking, ceramics, and creative writing. Her creative writing classes inspired her to write her charming memoirs, Through My Eyes.
